POWERCLUB

Complaints and Dispute Resolution Policy

Version 5.1

powerclub

1. INTRODUCTION

The Complaints and Dispute Resolution Policy (Policy) is Power Club Limited's (Powerclub) governing document for specifying how Powerclub ensures member complaints and disputes are managed within a framework that:

- Recognises the right of members to complain.
- Maintains the privacy, integrity, and respect of members who complain.
- Ensures all complaints are resolved in a timely and acceptable manner to the Complainant.
- Captures the benefits to efficiency from receiving complaints through review and continuous improvement.

2. WHAT'S THE PURPOSE OF THIS POLICY?

The purpose of this Policy is to embed an effective and efficient complaint and dispute resolution management process that is aligned with Powerclub's business values, core vision, and strategic objectives.

This Policy will support Powerclub operations and activities by promoting a positive complaint and dispute resolution management culture, establishing principles, expectations, and a framework to support implementing a uniform, responsive, risk-based, efficient, and effective complaint management system.

Specifically, this Policy outlines:

1. The scope of this Policy.
2. Powerclub's Complaint and Dispute Policy Statement.
3. Establishing the Board, Board Committees, management, and staff's key roles and responsibilities to ensure the Policy objectives are met.
4. What happens when a complaint is made.
5. What happens when a complaint is resolved.

3. WHAT DOES THE SCOPE OF THIS POLICY EXTENT TO?

This Policy applies to the legal entity, contractors, and employees of Powerclub. Relevant plans, procedures, and processes support this Policy. This Policy remains valid and in effect until notification is issued that the Policy has been superseded.

The scope of the Policy extends to obligations imposed by:

- Statutory, regulatory, and licence requirements.
- Relevant mandatory industry codes of conduct, practice notes, and guidelines.

This Policy, and the supporting Complaint and Dispute Resolution Framework, align to the extent appropriate for the business with the standards outlined by AS ISO 10002:2006 – "Customer Satisfaction – Guidelines for complaints handling in organisations."

4. WHAT IS POWERCLUB'S POLICY STATEMENT?

Powerclub recognises that all individuals have the right to complain, have their complaints heard, and be treated with dignity and respect. Any individual who makes a complaint also has the right to be treated with respect and consistent with all others' treatment. Members will not be treated unfavorably, including how Powerclub communicates and provides services, both during the resolution of the Complaint and once the Complaint is resolved.

Powerclub recognises that complaints and disputes can often highlight gaps in our processes and encourage members to raise issues to address any gaps.

The guiding principles from the AS ISO 10002-2006 – "Customer Satisfaction – Guidelines for complaints handling in organisations" apply to Powerclub in the following manner:

1. Intent - The Powerclub Board and Senior Management are committed to initiating an integrated complaint and dispute resolution system and providing the necessary support and resources for the system to operate effectively and efficiently.

By deploying the necessary resources, providing appropriately trained employees, implementing an enterprise-wide internal complaint and dispute resolution management process, the existence of a robust complaint and dispute resolution reporting procedure, and a review process focused on continuous improvement.

2. Visibility – Powerclub informs its members of its complaint and dispute resolution management process through its Member Charter, which is provided to all members who sign up to Powerclub. This document is always publicly available on the Powerclub website.

Employees who receive and/or manage complaints or disputes have a thorough understanding of the Powerclub complaint and dispute resolution management process. They can provide this information to members upon request.

3. Accessibility – All individuals have the right to make a complaint to or lodge a dispute with Powerclub by any reasonable means (e.g., telephone, email, online, and in writing). When a member wants to make a complaint or lodge a dispute and indicates the need for translation services, they will be made available to the member.

4. Responsiveness – Powerclub deals with and responds to complaints or disputes promptly, in line with the assessed significance of the complaint or Dispute, and keeps Complainants informed of the process and their Complaint or Dispute's progress.

5. Objectivity – Each Complaint or Dispute is addressed in an equitable, objective, and unbiased manner. Powerclub recognises the need to be fair to both the Complainant, any employee involved in handling the Complaint, and any employee identified as involved in the original interaction with the Complainant.

6. Charges – Powerclub does not charge members for the lodgement and processing of complaints or disputes.

7. Confidentiality – All complaints are recorded and dealt with in the strictest confidence. Personal information of the Complainant is accessed only as necessary and only to address the Complaint. All personal information is treated by Powerclub consistent with its obligations under the Privacy Act and Powerclub's Privacy Policy.

8. Customer-focused approach – Powerclub is committed to the efficient and equitable resolution of complaints and acknowledges each customer's right to complain.

9. Accountability – Complaints are reported to Senior Management and the Powerclub Board as considered appropriate. An overview of complaints statistics is reported to the Powerclub Board's Audit and Risk Management Committee for review, together with information on the Powerclub complaints management process.
10. Continual Improvement – Powerclub has established a Complaints tracking system to ensure that systemic problems are identified, classified, and analysed. The Powerclub Internal complaint and dispute resolution process will be reviewed on an annual basis, at a minimum, to ensure it is delivering effective outcomes.

If deemed appropriate, more regular reviews will be instigated to ensure timely consideration of opportunities to:

- a) Explore, identify, and apply best practice in complaints handling.
- b) Foster a customer-focused approach within the organisation.
- c) Encourage innovation in complaint handling.
- d) Recognise outstanding complaint handling behavior.

5. WHAT IS A COMPLAINT?

A Complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction made to an organisation related to its products, or the complaint-handling process itself, where a response or resolution is explicitly or implicitly expected.

Powerclub's policy practice or customer service performance, where a response or resolution is explicitly or implicitly expected, will formulate a complaint. A complaint is an expression of grievance about an action, a failure to act, or proposed action or solution.

A Complaint that is Not Resolved is regarded Dispute as a and is escalated.

An Enquiry is a request from a customer for general information for example about relevant codes or guidelines, copy of our prices, information about Who is Powerclub, what is Powerbank Etc

A complainant is a person, organization, or its representative making a complaint.

6. WHAT HAPPENS WHEN A COMPLAINT IS MADE, OR A DISPUTE IS RAISED?

6.1. When Powerclub receives a Complaint or Dispute:

- a) Powerclub will accurately record the Complaint or Dispute details as part of Powerclub's complaint and dispute management process, give it fair and genuine consideration, and seek to achieve a fair outcome.
- b) Powerclub will acknowledge your enquiry, complaint, or Dispute as soon as possible within 48 hours of receipt and aim to resolve the query within ten business days from when we receive our feedback fairly and reasonably.
- c) Sometimes, we need a bit longer to find the answer or solution, but we will be sure to contact you within five business days to give you an update and let you know when we think we will find the answer or solution. We will also confirm how frequently you'd like to be updated moving forward.
- d) Complaints are allocated to a staff member charged with the accountability skills required to process complaints or disputes effectively.

- e) Powerclub will inquire into the Complaint within a reasonable timeframe regarding the nature and complexity of the Complaint.
- f) Powerclub will, appropriately, keep both members and senior management informed of progress.
- g) Powerclub will treat the Complaint respectfully and handle all personal information per the Privacy Act 1988 and Powerclub's Privacy Policy.
- h) Powerclub will ensure the Complainant is satisfied that Powerclub had done everything reasonably possible to resolve the proposed resolution before closing off the Complaint or Dispute.

6.2. What happens if the Complainant is not satisfied with the outcome?

- a) Suppose a complainant is dissatisfied with a decision. In that case, they can request to have their Complaint reviewed by a Powerclub representative at a higher level than the initial Powerclub representative who handled the matter.
- b) If the Complaint is not resolved to the member's satisfaction, the member may complain to the relevant external dispute resolution body (i.e., the relevant Ombudsman).
- c) Powerclub will, appropriately, keep both members and senior management informed of progress.
- d) Powerclub will provide the member, in writing, the contact details for the relevant energy Ombudsman if Powerclub has been unable to resolve the member's Complaint within 28 days. This information is also available on the Powerclub website.

Everyone has the right to make a complaint to Powerclub if they are not satisfied with Powerclub's products, services, or policies. Powerclub will not discriminate against anyone due to that person making a complaint or lodging a dispute.

6.3. What happens when the Complaint or Dispute has been resolved?

1. Powerclub senior management will review the complaint and dispute resolution process regularly to:
 - a) Ensure continuing suitability, adequacy effectiveness, and efficiency.
 - b) Identify and address non-conformity.
 - c) Identify and correct product deficiencies.
 - d) Identify and correct process deficiencies.
 - e) Assess opportunities for improvement.
 - f) Evaluate potential changes.
2. If appropriate, Powerclub will make changes to remedy the situation to prevent the problem from reoccurring.

7. WHAT ARE POWERCLUB'S KEY ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES?

The Powerclub Executive Management Team supports the Powerclub Board (Board). The Compliance Officer is ultimately responsible and accountable for compliance activities across the business. These responsibilities and accountabilities are discharged as follows:

7.1. Board

The Board has ultimate accountability and responsibility for Powerclub's governance and compliance standards. The Board is responsible for:

- Approving this Policy
- Ensuring robust control, reporting, and improvement systems are in place and operating effectively
- We are monitoring the performance of the system.
- We are reviewing and considering recommendations for improvements to this Policy, systems, processes, and resourcing.

7.2. Chief Executive Officer

The CEO is responsible for:

- The operational and legal compliance of Powerclub concerning complaints and dispute resolution;
- Ensuring adequate and robust procedures and processes are in place to ensure this policy is effectively implemented;
- Appointing a responsible complaint handling management representative; and
- Ensuring relevant Complaint and dispute resolution responsibilities are included in position descriptions as appropriate.

7.3. Powerclub Executive Management Team

The Powerclub Executive Management Team is responsible for:

- The implementation of Policy obligations throughout the business and the allocation of adequate and appropriate resources to establish, develop, implement, evaluate, maintain and improve the complaint and dispute resolution processes, system, and performance outcomes.
- They are ensuring that responsibilities and authorities for relevant roles are assigned and communicated within the organisation.
- We are defining the monitoring objectives and responsibilities within Powerclub.
- We are conducting reviews of the complaint and dispute resolution framework.
- Ensuring sound and timely systems for monitoring and reporting are in place.
- We are identifying, recommending, and implementing approved improvements.

7.4. Complaints Handling Management Representative

The Powerclub Complaints Handling Management Representative ("CHMR") is responsible for managing the:

- Implementation processes, systems, and reporting capabilities.
- Allocation of resources and responsibilities.
- Operation of processes, systems, and reporting capabilities.
- Data collection concerning the operations.
- Monitoring processes, systems, and reporting capabilities.
- Reporting requirements to the Board, Executive management, and participants.
- We are arranging peer reviews to inform the performance of and improvements.

7.5. All Powerclub Staff

All employees, staff of outsourced service providers, and contractors (staff) are responsible for complying with this Policy as relevant to their position description and duties.

All staff must participate in training according to the complaints and dispute resolution management system, use available resources as a part of the complaints and dispute resolution management system, and work towards ways to improve Powerclub's complaints and dispute management performance.

The third-party service provider will assist with the resolution of Ombudsman complaints but not action Ombudsman complaints. This remains with Powerclub.

All staff must report compliance concerns, issues, and failures and always adhere to the Powerclub Code of Conduct.

8. WHAT HAPPENS IN THE EVENT OF POLICY NON-COMPLIANCE?

All non-compliances with this Policy will be recorded.

Any non-compliances that are risk-rated as critical or significant will be escalated to the Board or a relevant Board Committee through Powerclub's non-compliance reporting processes. Non-compliances that are risk-rated as moderate or minor will be reported to the Chief Executive Officer.

Incidents of wilful non-compliance with this Policy are severe and will be dealt with per Powerclub's normal performance management process, which may include dismissal.

9. WHAT IF THERE IS CONFLICT BETWEEN POLICIES?

In the event of a conflict between policies, the following precedence will apply in this order to the extent of any inconsistency:

- Board approved Policy.
- CEO approved procedures or work practices.
- Business approved procedures or work practices.

10. NEED TO ESCALATE A MATTER FURTHER

At any time, you can tell us that you wish to escalate a matter. If this happens, we will refer your query or Complaint to senior managers within our team. At this point, we will also remind you of your right to refer the matter to your State Energy Ombudsman. The Energy Ombudsman is an independent, free service available to domestic and business customers and can investigate and resolve disputes between customers and electricity and gas companies.

11. RIGHT TO AN INDEPENDENT DISPUTE RESOLUTION

If you feel your complaint has still not been adequately resolved, you have the right to complain with your state ombudsman. The Ombudsman provides an independent and free dispute resolution service for customers who cannot resolve their Complaints with their energy retailer.
